Louis Jackson III also known as LJ Da Joker is a native of Miami, FL who spent the former years of his childhood growing up in Jacksonville, FL's Duval County. Since coming home from prison and in just under 4 years he has cultivated himself into one of Jacksonville's most well-known rap artists. In 2015, he began pushing his campaign "Rock the Bank" to get his hit song "Big Cats" adopted into TIAA Bank Stadium as the new Jaguar's Anthem. You can catch his interviews on media platforms such as Harp on Sports 930 AM and River City Live.

In 2017 he starred in his first film title Sampled Love with some of Jacksonville's other heavy hitters. From acting and modeling to rapping and being a top notch entertainer, LJ Da Joker has no shortage of talents in his bag. His latest LP, "Loyalty" is now available for download on all digital platforms. If you've seen him live, you know his performance is nothing short of an experience and he is the epitome of what it means to be your own brand. LJ Da Joker is truly living out his mission to change the climate in his city.

Music

The Voice of the People, LJ Da Joker, is the perfect mixture of street bravado meets conscious gangsta. Born in da 305, as a pre-teen he was relocated to the place he proudly calls home. DUVAL COUNTY!!

After serving 7 years in prison, this FLORIDA BOY came home on a mission with everything to gain and nothing to lose. The self proclaimed “Hottest Nigga In the South” is here and the rap game will never be the same again.

LJ Da Joker presents his first studio project since being released from prison and it flows effortlessly from track to track. His energetic flow bounces over masterful production. This EP is available everywhere music is sold digitally online.
